Application for Membership in the American Association of Physical Anthropologists

Membership in the AAPA is by election at the annual business meeting of the Association (usually held in March or April) after approval by the Membership Chair. Thus all approved applicants are normally enrolled initially in a provisional status and receive the American Journal of Physical Anthropology and the Yearbook of Physical Anthropology. Applications must be accompanied by full annual dues payment. Payment must be in U.S. funds (see dues below) by check, MasterCard, VISA or American Express. Complete the application on the reverse side and forward it to AAPA Membership, 1313 Dolley Madison Blvd., Suite 402, McLean VA 22101.

REGULAR MEMBERSHIP

is open to professional anthropologists, advanced students showing evidence of professional capacity, professionals in cognate sciences, and others who have demonstrated qualification by publication or professional activities.

REGULAR POSTDOC/CONTINGENT FACULTY

AAPA Considers this category to include those in temporary postdoctoral positions or non-tenure-line faculty positions making less than $56,000 per year is open to bona fide students for a maximum of six years. Extensions for additional years are subject to annual reapplication.

SPECIAL MEMBERSHIP

is open to persons with a professional interest in physical anthropology currently not desiring or accepted for regular membership may also apply for, or continue, special membership.

RETIRED (EMERITUS/A) MEMBERSHIP is available to regular members after normally 25 years in good standing who have retired. Retired members are relieved of payment of Association dues without impairment of standing but must continue to pay subscription costs to continue receiving Association publications.

SPOUSES

who are both members in any membership category are required to pay only one subscription for Association publications.

QUALIFYING COUNTRY MEMBERSHIP

$40 for regular and special membership and $20 for student membership is available to residents of some countries. The AAPA classifies a qualifying country as a Middle- or Low-income economy country according to the definitions of the World Bank. Please visit this link for a list of qualifying countries: World Bank List

*Based on the decision of the publisher, Wiley-Blackwell, beginning January 2016, the default subscription option for receiving the American Journal of Physical Anthropology is online access only. All members will receive online access to AJPA free of charge as part of their membership. Those members who wish to receive a PRINT copy of the journal in addition to online access may do so at additional cost when joining or renewing. Currently the surcharge for adding a print copy of AJPA to your membership is $95. We send this surcharge directly to the publisher.
